NC Elder Law Attorney, A. Frank Johns Recognized by *Super Lawyers

Greensboro, NC -- A. Frank Johns, managing principal of Booth Harrington & Johns of NC PLLC, North Carolina's first elder law firm, has been named by Super Lawyers magazine for the third consecutive year as one of the top attorneys in North Carolina for 2011. Only five percent of the lawyers in the state are named by Super Lawyers. Johns is the only elder law attorney in North Carolina making the list.

"As an attorney, there is nothing more rewarding than counseling and helping elderly clients, those with special needs, and their families with critical quality of life, legal and financial related issues," says Johns. "It's an honor to be recognized for something that I'm passionate about in the company of such a distinguished group of leaders."

The selections for this award are made by the research team at Super Lawyers, which is a service of the Thomson Reuters Legal division based in Eagan, Minnesota. Each year, a rigorous multi-phase selection process takes place that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, independent evaluation of candidates by an attorney-led research staff, a peer review of candidates by practice area, and a good-standing and disciplinary check.
